Charie Draper Family License			Revocation – effective December 22, 2003.	A covered individual in the facility was found to have pending criminal charges through the Salt Lake County Sheriff's Office.	Revocation effective December 22, 2003.  Provider requested a bureau conference, held on December 19, 2003. Agreement was made to rescind the revocation based on the issuance of a conditional license with the following conditions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The covered individual with pending charges may not be in the home during child care hours;</li> <li>2. The provider must keep the Bureau informed of pending hearings and court appointments;</li> <li>3. Increased monitoring to ensure conditions are met.</li> </ol>
Maria Alicia Cruz RC			Cease and Desist Order – issued on December 11, 2003.	Unlicensed provider was caring for eight total children when an infant in her care died. Four of the eight children were infants under the age of two. This provider had her certificate revoked in July 2002 due to unsafe conditions in her home, including too many infants.	Monitoring visits have shown that the provider has disenrolled all children in her care. West Valley City Police are investigating the case and have been working with licensing to gather facts.
